Congratulations Woodrow Wilson Presidents on surviving another year of " Life In The Fast Lane".Some of us are just starting,some of us are stuck somewhere in the middle,while some of us are fortunate enough to be in the first graduation of the millenium but we are all racing for the goal.

This yearbook will run through all the big events of the school year,from the presidential election to the most embarrassing moment of the school year. Check out some of your friends, flip though the student section, you'll see some goofy faces.Put the pedal to the medal and speed through the sports section and the administrators and staff section and finish up with the ad section.

Go!Go!Go! Always on the move! Our whole society revolves around speed. Times are changing fast and the world around you is moving even faster. You must try to keep pace or risk falling behind the pack. But as you ride by that checkered flag in June remember it's not over!!!!

Renewing Tradition

Homecoming 2000

The 2000 Homecoming game was held on October 28, 2000. Our Presidents faced the Titans of Lake Taylor in a battle that ended in a score of 0-49, a Wilson loss. But the team showed great heart and fought till the end.

Although a little windy, it was a beautiful evening to hold a Homecoming game. The Homecoming court waltzed on to the field arm-in-arm with style and class. Mr. and Miss Freshman were Anwar Edwards and Sheena Wiggins. Mr. Sophomore was Aaron "Big Lam" Lambert. And to a great surprise there were 2 winners for Miss Sophomore-Rodricka Elliot and Bethany Cowfer. Mr. and Miss Junior were Norris Williams & Jennifer Cauldwell. The SUPER SENIORS were represented by Mario Marin, Mr. Senior, and Melvina Bynum, Miss Senior. The candidates for Homecoming King were Christopher Rooks, Jason Welch, and Donnell Owens. The candidates for Homecoming Queen were Michelle Potts, Krystal Clark, and Latoshia Pinkney. Drum roll please.....your 2000 Woodrow Wilson Homecoming King and Queen were Donnell Owens and Krystal Clark.

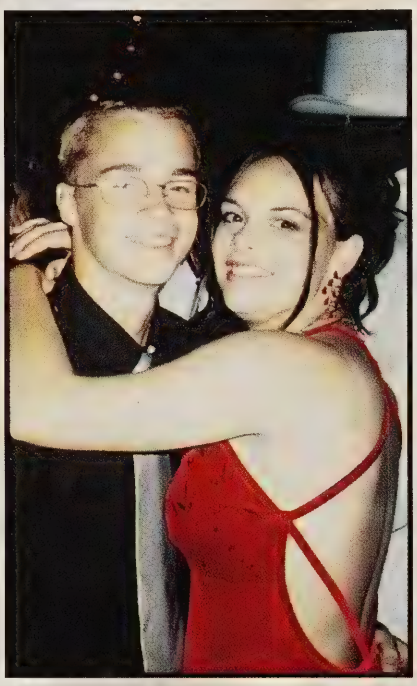
Adrienne looks magical in her dress.

Prom Prince and Princess share a royal dance.

Jennifer lets everything go.



Matt and Beth dance the night away.

Mike doesn't look so happy.

Who are you talkin' to Prom King?

Ready for the best night ever.

Marcus gives Mr. Butts a well deserved award!

The Senior and Junior prom was held on the night of May 27, 2000 at the Chesapeake Conference Center. The center was decorated with the theme of "Magical Moments" and the colors were blue, silver and white.

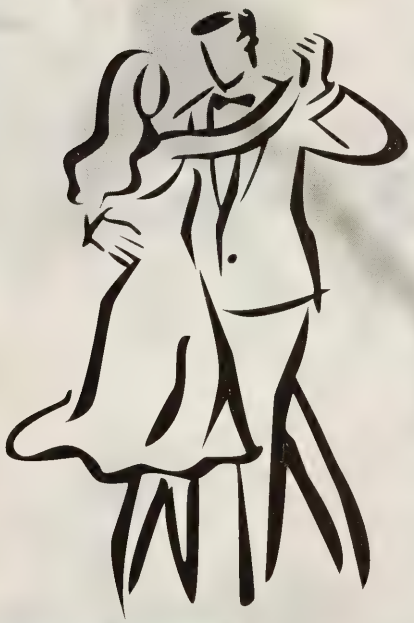
The night was a huge success. Melvina Bynum was prom princess, Donell Owens was prom prince, Imani Patterson was prom king and prom queen was Melissa Powell.

The after prom party was held at Pinboys from 12:00 a.m. to 5:00 a.m. Mr. James Butts was the junior class sponsor and he did a great job!! Much thanks goes to him and the Junior Class officers!

Adrienne and Pam stop for a quick picture.

Sharing a magical moment.

The smile of a great Prom Queen.



Sitting down for a breather.

Kerri and Amber lookin' kinda goofy.

Mock Ele

On October 24, 2000, the AP Government class conducted a school wide mock election in which students voted for the President of the United States, the US Senate, and the US House of Representatives. Compared to the mock elections of Norcom and Churchland, Woodrow Wilson's was a huge success. Our registration process was true to life, with students having to register in order to vote. Out of a population of approximately 1,110 students, 675 registered and 560 voted. That is actually 83% voter participation!

The AP Government class had a three day registration drive during the lunch periods on the square. The government class made posters, banners, and flyers to encourage the students to register to vote. Posters were hung up throughout the school to reveal the issues of the Presidential race. A debate was held in front of the senior class in the Little Theater. After the debate there was a session for the students to ask questions and receive answers from the AP government class on the issues.

The 2000 Mock Election was a complete success. The final results for President were... 246 votes for Bush and 314 votes for Gore. In the Senate race, Allen was the victor with 332 votes over Robb with 210 votes. Incumbent Norman Sisisky was unopposed for the House of Representatives.

The Untouchables

The 2000-2001 Woodrow Wilson Track Team was composed of 11 members. The team had a very successful year sending two females to the regionals. Those two girls were Candis Black ,a senior from the Class of 2000, and Bertha Potent, a junior from the Class of 2002. Some of the team members said it was fun and can't wait for the 2001 track season to start.

The track team has a lot of raw talent and they continue to try to perfect their skills and become the best that they can be, with the goal of becoming state champs!! So to the track team of the 2001-2002 season- Get ready for a very tough and challenging year!!!!!!

BATTER UP!

Knock Em' Out The Box!

The 2000 Woodrow Wilson Varsity Baseball team had the best season in this buildings' school history. The team finished with a record of 14 wins and 5 losses. The team tied for first place in the Eastern District, but was declared in 2nd place by a tie breaking system. A heart breaking 12 inning loss to Granby in the District Finals eliminated the Presidents from going to the Regionals. The team was led by the hitting of Andre Branch and the pitching of Needham Jones.

Team has Winning Streak

The 2000 Wilson J.V Baseball team had another successful season with a second place finish in the Eastern District, ten wins and four loses. The young but talented players were lead by a strong pitching staff of Justin Askew and Adam Jackson. The team was very competitive considering that they were so young. Many of these players will be called up to play varsity during the 2001 season.

With combinations of talent of last year's players and the addition of several newcomers, the boys soccer team worked together to make a winning season.

Under the leadershipp of Coach Moreno, the boys worked hard to have a great year. The skill of the boys team was amazing. Most of the players were members of select teams and continued to play with hard determination through out the year.

In the beginning of the year, no one could predict what the outcome of the season would be. The boys took their games one at a time and with great team work, effort, and togetherness, they came out to have a winning season!

Sliding into a Winning Season

The Presidents have won the Eastern District and the Eastern District Tournament in the last four years. They finished first in the Eastern District last season with a 15 win and 1 loss overall record and a 14 win and 1 loss district record to earn a berth in the Regionals. They lost to Western Branch, 2-3 in ten innings.

During the off-season these young ladies play summer A.S.A softball and fall softball which help them to become better high school players. The 2001 team had seven returning players. Coach Gordon is the team's coach.

LaTasha is NUMBER 1!!!!

LaTasha Colander-Richardson
Olympic Gold Medalist

On October 6, 2000, Wilson held an Olympic size celebration for its very first Olympic hero, LaTasha Colander-Richardson. The gold medal winner was showered with praise and confetti in front of 1,200 students, faculty, and other distinguished guests. Mrs. Colander-Richardson was a member of the victorious U.S. Women's 4x400 relay team.

"I came back to show you the gold medal," ranted the medalist. "It stands for faith. It stands for trusting in God."

Clearly overcome with emotion, Colander-Richardson was heard to remark: "Praise the Lord. I give thanks to my God." The school band and cheerleaders both performed as the helicopter carrying the Olympian landed in front of the school and she was escorted down the red carpet. Later in the day, Mayor James W. Holley III presented LaTasha with the key to the city in a downtown ceremony at City Hall..

Any words of wisdom from the Olympic gold medal winner?

"You stay dedicated and your dreams will come true. Believe in yourself and you can soar."

Thanks LaTasha! You have made Wilson High School proud.

WWHS welcomes their Olympic hero.

THAT SOMEONE SPECIAL

Everyone Has That Special Friend

As you push your way down the hall, you see your friend. She waves to you, a huge grin on her face. Our whole world is radiating messages, both good and bad, and as we walk through the hall at school, or anywhere else for that matter, we are sending and receiving these messages. Through communication we discover our similarities and differences and build strong opinions that can be harsly stero-typical. Too often we judge people by their personalities. Be it by hair or skin color, the clothes we wear , or even the activities we are involved in, we create the image by which others will judge us and determine our value.

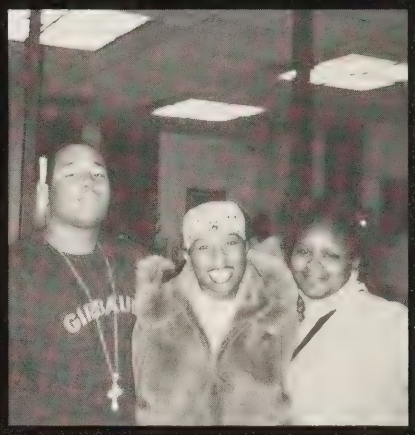
Ever met someone famous?....Its pretty exciting, just ask your own classmates!

Hollywood Visits Wilson High School



Steven Ciccone got a chance of a lifetime when he accidently bumped into the famous Whitney Houston this past summer while visiting Atlantic City, New Jersey. After attending her concert, Steven was walking through the hotel lobby where he was staying when he began talking to the back up singers for Whitney. Afterwards they invited Steve to meet Whitney. "She was amazing." Meeting Whitney was the highlight of my life," says Steven.

Missy Elliott, a graduate of Wilson High School, came back to visit her teachers this past winter. Missy has made it big in the music world where she is a popular rap singer.

FOR NICHOLE

To Our Daughter

Our daughter, if We could only say,
What our hearts holds for you this day.
Sons are an extension of their fathers,
Daughters of their mothers.
Our heart is filled with so much love for you.
For all that you are,
and each little thing you do.

Our prayer for you, is that you may come to see,
All your hopes, your dreams come true
... whatever they may be.
You have meant more to us than you could ever know.
More than in a lifetime, We could ever show.
If We could take every word ever written or said, or Every beautiful painting,
song that was sung,
or poems read.

Put them altogether, they would still never say;
What you, our beautiful daughter,
mean to us this day.

As we sit here and look back over all the years,
Remembering, all your laughter and tears.
The first time, We held you in our arms,
And was captured by your beauty and charms.
We have had our differences,
But you have been our pride, our joy,
and will always be.

So as we all grow older, and gray streaks are in our hair,
We feel we must tell you just how much we care.
We love you with every fabric of our souls!

With All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Johnathan
And
Grandma And Grandpa Phillips
And
Grandma And Grandpa Christy
Forever Our Love

I love you a lot, my sister.
I will never find a better listener.
I'll never forget the good times
we've spent,
and all of the cool clothes I've lent.
I remember all of our fights, and want you to know I was always right (ha ha).
You will be my best friend to the end.
Love You
Johnathan

CONGRATULATIONS KAREN!

Although I can't protect you from the world now
the way I could
when you were little,
I have a firm belief that your future will be a good one because of the great confidence
I have in the person you've become.

Wishing you happiness and success in your future.

Love always,
Mom

CONGRATULATIONS KAREN, C/O 2001

We share a special closeness and a trust that never ends,
It was chance that made us sisters, but it was love that made us friends.

I am so proud of you. May all of your dreams come true. You've worked hard for this day. I love you so much and you have been the best sister and friend.

Just remember, there are holes in the floor of heaven and Dad is watching over you. We have an angel on our shoulder. I know he is so proud and smiling down on you.

Love always,
Kim and Dad, in Spirit

CONGRATULATIONS!!

Follow your dreams, whatever they are.
Believe in yourself, and you'll go far!

We are proud of your academic achievements, and even prouder of the fine, outstanding young man you have become.

May the best in life be yours!

Egg Rolls & Elephant Shoes !!

Love - Mom & Glen

Stephanie,

Your mother and I are so proud to have this opportunity to dedicate our love and thoughts to you for all that you have ever been. You have always been loving, thoughtful, and a caring person. No other child could have ever given us what you have — your love, that smile, and all your outstanding achievements. There have been so many wonderful times for us throughout our years. Our hearts and souls are etched with memories that every parent could only wish or dream for. We know your success in the future is just another journey down the path of life. We love you with all of our hearts and wish you the best in some of life's greatest opportunities. "Throughout your journey you will do great, so live your life so that your friends can defend you — but never have to."

Congratulations!
Love, Mom & Dad

Keep Your Dreams Alive

Believe in yourself
and your vision of the future.
Surround yourself with those who believe in you and will help you achieve your goals.
Keep your dreams alive
despite the challenges along the way.

There is only one key to success:
never quit until you win.
You can do it.
The seed of greatness ties within you.
Nurture it, and there
Will be nothing you can't do.

Kimberly,

We want you to know how happy and proud of all you accomplished. You know we always wish you happiness, but we also hope you'll always have the satisfaction of reaching your goal and still being your own person- the really special person you are. Enjoy your graduation- And remember as you do- We are sharing in your happy moments too….

Congratulations

Love Mom and Dad
And your brother Clint

Congratulations Allen Dail and The Class of 2001
